DOM (NM) USA; Lic Acu.; Cert Cl. Hom (USA)

Soma Glick is a Doctor of Oriental Medicine and a licensed acupuncturist from the USA with a diplomate in acupuncture and herbology from the NCCAOM and certification in classical homeopathy. After graduating from the International Institute of Chinese Medicine in Santa Fe, New Mexico she has completed internships in Beijing, China and Ho Chi Minh city, Vietnam.

She was a professor at the Southwest Acupuncture College in Boulder, Colorado from 1998 to 2005 where she developed and taught the paediatric acupuncture class and many other core curriculum classes. She ran the professional paediatric clinic and personally mentored several students.

Since 2003 Soma has taught weekend workshops on paediatric acupuncture around the world. She has taught with Jake Fratkin at the CSOMA symposium in San Francisco and lectured on treating children with Oriental medicine at the Boulder community hospital. Most recently Soma was invited to speak on healing and spirituality in India and Singapore.

Dr. Soma, as she is affectionately known, has relocated to the island of Bali, where she has a busy private practice, and she donates one day a week, treating up to 30 Balinese children, at a free local clinic.

Soma Glick has been published in the 'Journal of Chinese Medicine' and in 'Acupuncture Today'.
